

ASL-English Interpretation Program

offers the option to pursue a BA Degree or a Two-Year Professional Certificate. The baccalaureate degree is offered in collaboration with Empire State/SUNY. The program, the only one of its kind in the Metropolitan New York City Tri-State area, is a rigorous and well-regarded training for a career as an ASL-English Interpreter.

The program also offers a Pre-Interpretation Program as a bridge that will assist you in acquiring the skills needed to be accepted into the degree or certificate programs.

ASL Language & Interpreting Lab

As an adult ASL and ASL-Interpreter student, you will have access to the college's state-of-the-art, multi-media, ASL Language & Interpreting Lab as part of your classroom activities.

Baby Fingers' Mommy & Me Sign Language Classes

Sign Language for infants and toddlers & their parents. Three levels of Mommy & Me Sign Language Classes are offered for parents and their hearing infants, as young as one month old, and toddlers up to age three.

Our Continuing Education Program offers five levels of ASL classes that are designed to help you develop ASL communication competency. You will learn the skills of grammar, vocabulary, expressive and receptive skills, and experience discussions about Deaf Culture. Specialized workshops, to help enhance your ASL skills, are offered throughout the year.

As a Contract Service, our Continuing Education ASL classes can be tailored to your business needs and are offered off-campus.

Intensive Study in American Sign Language is available for the continuing education student seriously wishing to advance their studies further. Three levels of ASL are offered jointly with the college's Academic Division.

Deaf Studies, a Liberal Arts Associate in Arts Degree, offers an extensive set of courses in ASL for college credit. Language development is supported, expanded and reinforced through internships and other assignments that involve interactions with diverse ASL users.

Deaf Studies prepares you for a career in teaching, social work, counseling, ASL/English interpreting, psychology, rehabilitation counseling, audiology and others.
